Profit & Loss

Harbor Lane Renovation LLC · Jul 2026 · Cash basis

What this report shows: the money your business earned (income) and spent to run it (cost of goods sold and expenses) in the period. The bottom line, net income, is your profit for the period. Books are kept on a cash basis: income and expenses count when the money moved. Owner draws, loan principal, transfers between your own accounts and credit card payments are not expenses and do not appear here.
